

Notice of Data Event

PUC National and PUC Schools (“PUC”) are providing notice of an incident that may affect the security of certain information relating to some individuals.

What Happened? On January 26, 2021, PUC became aware of suspicious activity relating to email accounts. Upon discovery, PUC worked with third party forensic investigators to investigate the nature and scope of the activity, and the PUC email accounts of interest. We determined that information within some PUC email accounts was downloaded by an unauthorized actor. In response, we conducted a deliberate and thorough assessment of the information contained within the accounts and to whom that information pertained. On September 10, 2021, we confirmed that information relating to certain individuals, which may have included some education records, was impacted by this event. While we are unaware of any actual or attempted malicious use of information as a result of this incident, we take the security of data we hold very seriously, and are providing this notification out of an abundance of caution.

What Information Was Involved? The impacted email accounts contained personal information including names, Social Security numbers, medical information, and username and password and/or security code.

What We Are Doing. The confidentiality, privacy, and security of personal information within our care is among PUC’s highest priorities. Upon learning of the event, we investigated to determine those individuals that were affected, and secured the compromised accounts. We have taken additional steps to improve security and better protect against similar incidents in the future. In an abundance of caution, we are also notifying potentially affected individuals so that they may take further steps to best protect their personal information.

We encourage impacted parties to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing account statements and monitoring their free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors over the next 12 to 24 months. We also encourage you to review the below Steps You Can Take to Protect Personal Information.

We understand that you may have questions about this incident that are not addressed in this notice. If so, please contact PUC’s home office at 818-559-7699 9:00 am to 5:00 pm Pacific Monday through Friday (excluding some U.S. national holidays). You may also write to PUC at 1405 N. STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO PROTECT PERSONAL INFORMATION

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, military identification, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
